Diversity and Inclusion

Brisbane Catholic Education (BCE) and Notre Dame College welcome students who have a diverse range of personal characteristics and experiences. These characteristics and experiences may be attributable to physical, religious, cultural, personal health or wellbeing, intellectual, psychological, socio-economic or life experiences.

We provide a range of personnel and resources to support access to, and participation in, learning for all students, which may include but is not limited to, specialised/extension programs and extracurricular activities.

Social Climate

Student Wellbeing

Notre Dame College plays a vital role in promoting the wellbeing of all students. Together with students, families, the community and other training providers, we build positive learning environments to address student wellbeing. Through elements such as leadership, inclusion, student voice, partnerships and support, Notre Dame College provides the foundation for enhanced student wellbeing and learning outcomes.

Family and Community Engagement

Families and the wider community are invited into our Catholic school community as interested parties of the students to plan and partner with, for the benefit of all Notre Dame College students.

BCE and Notre Dame College are committed to good governance, family and community partnerships, and formal group arrangements, enabling us to work with families, staff, community and faith groups for the benefit of all.

Parent, Student and Staff Satisfaction

The tables below show selected items from the recent Tell Them From Me (parent/caregiver, student, and staff satisfaction) survey for Notre Dame College.

Table 2: Parent survey – Percentage of parents/carers who agree² that:

Student Outcomes

Student attendance

Table 5: Overall student attendance at this school by year:

	2025
Overall attendance rate ³ for students at this school	90.8%

Table 6: Student attendance³ rate by year and year level:

	2025
Preparatory	90.3%
Year 1	91.9%
Year 2	92.9%
Year 3	91.6%
Year 7	89.9%

3. The student attendance rate is generated by dividing the total of full-days and part-days that students attended, and comparing this to the total of all possible days for students to attend, expressed as a percentage.

Description of how this school manages non-attendance

Notre Dame College manages student attendance in line with the BCE's Student Attendance Procedure which outlines processes for managing and recording student attendance and absenteeism. We are committed to prioritising student attendance through consistent practices of roll-marking, monitoring, and proactive follow-up of student non-attendance. Notre Dame College communicates high expectations of attendance to employees, students, parents, and guardians, and recognises high attendance.

Our staff profile

Teacher standards and qualifications

Notre Dame College requires teachers to meet the Queensland College of Teachers (QCT) Teacher registration eligibility requirements Policy (p.1) which states:

To be eligible for registration, a person must satisfy the QCT they meet requirements regarding qualifications and experience or have otherwise met the requirements of the Australian Professional Standards for Teachers (APST). A person must also satisfy the QCT that they are suitable to teach and meet English language proficiency requirements. All these requirements are specified in the Act and the Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Regulation 2005 (the Regulation).

The qualifications required for teacher registration are successful completion of either-

1. a four-year initial teacher education program including teacher education studies of at least one year (e.g. a Bachelor of Education, or a double Bachelor degree in Science and Teaching) or
2. a one-year graduate initial teacher education program following a degree (e.g. a one-year Graduate Diploma of Education (Secondary) after a three-year Bachelor degree) or
3. another course of teacher education that the QCT is reasonably satisfied is the equivalent of (a) or (b). These are considered on a case-by-case basis.
